The Rise of the Must-See Exhibition

Blockbusters in Australian Museums and Galleries

Anna Lawrenson and Chiara O'Reilly

Series: Routledge Research in Museum Studies

The Rise of the Must-See Exhibition explores blockbuster exhibitions in the Australian cultural context, demonstrating how policy developments and historical precedents have created a space for their current domination. The examples discussed offer a unique opportunity to study how institutional growth, political support, individual champions and audience interest have influenced the development of large-scale temporary exhibitions.

The volume will also appeal to academics and students engaged in the study of museums and galleries, arts management and curating, as well as those interested in the history of exhibitions and cultural policy.
